Dear Mr. Ayres:

Thank you for your letter of 11 August 1959 concerning Mr.

[Redacted]

We are writing to [Redacted] to invite him for an interview at a time convenient to him and a copy of that letter to him is enclosed for your information. As noted in our letter, our recruitment at this time is generally limited to replacing attrition among clerical personnel and obtaining a few junior officer trainees. However, we do not wish to discourage any interested applicant who wants to discuss employment with us and shall be glad to give [Redacted] application careful consideration.

We appreciate your writing to us about [Redacted] and shall advise you of the results of his application.

EXECUTIVE REGISTRY FILE

19 AUG 1959

The Honorable Joel T. Broyhill and the Honorable William H. Ayres have written to us of your interest in employment with this organization and noted your willingness to come to Washington for interviews.

STAT

Our interview office is located at 1016 Sixteenth Street, N.W. (opposite the Statler Hotel) and is open Monday through Friday. You may come in any time between 8:30 A.M. and 3:00 P.M. and see

Before you go to the expense of a trip to Washington, however, we want to offer some background on our current employment situation. Our recruitment is generally limited to replacing attrition among clerical personnel and obtaining a few junior officer trainees. There are occasional openings of a more specialized nature for individuals with particular attainments in our field of work but only infrequent openings at the executive level in administrative lines.

We note from your resume that you probably are a regular officer who will be retiring from the Navy on the basis of length of service. In this event, your employment by a government agency would be subject to dual compensation and dual employment statutes which would have the general effect of precluding such employment. Our Agency is permitted to employ a few such officers but these authorizations are usually committed and vacancies are usually filled as they occur by retired officers with special qualifications in intelligence work.

We appreciate your valuable experience in management, personnel relations, and public relations but see no opportunity for taking advantage of your talents and abilities. We should nonetheless be very glad to see you and to have the benefit of a personal interview to assist in future consideration of your application.

Honorable Carl Hayden
United States Senate
Washington, D. C.

Dear Senator Hayden:

Thank you for your letter of 27 July 1959 concerning

[Redacted]

I have asked our Director of Personnel to review the personal history data furnished by [Redacted] with interested officials of the Agency to determine whether we have an immediate opening for him. Our present recruitment is limited generally to replacing clerical attrition and obtaining a few selected junior officer trainees. Opportunities at a more advanced level are infrequent and it may be that we will not locate a position for him. However, he has an impressive background and I would not wish to dispose of his application without a very careful consideration of any possibilities.

I appreciate your bringing [Redacted] to my attention and we shall advise you of the results of our review.

Sincerely,
